

6:00 p.m. Light refreshments
6:30 p.m. Panel discussion begins
8:00 p.m. Audience interactive discussion

How Will a Carbon Tax Change Our Lives?

6:30 p.m. Friday November 1st
Robert Rauschenberg Foundation Project Space
455 West 19th Street, New York City

Moderator: Charles Komanoff- Director, Carbon Tax Center

Panelists

Denis Hayes

Author, organizer, activist, visionary change agent. Chair of the Seattle-based Bullitt Foundation that advances sustainability in the Pacific Northwest. Former director of the U.S. Solar Energy Research Institute. Co-founder and coordinator of Earth Day (1970).

Elizabeth Yeampierre

Attorney, organizer, activist. Founder-director of United Puerto Rican Organization of Sunset Park (UPROSE), Brooklyn's oldest Latino community-based organization. Spearhead of the NYC Environmental Justice Alliance (NYEJA). Former chair of USEPA's National Environmental Justice Advisory Council.

Juliet Schor

Professor of sociology at Boston College. Author of four books, including "The Overspent American: Why We Want What We Don't Need" (1999) and "Plenitude: The New Economics of True Wealth" (2010). Co-founder of the Center for a New American Dream.

Tim DeChristopher

Activist, student at Harvard Divinity School. Co-founder of the civil disobedience environmental group non-violent activity organization, "Peaceful Uprising." Recently released from federal prison for successfully hacking an oil and gas lease auction in Utah redrock county. Profiled in the documentary film, "Bidder 70." country.